Assignment:

The media hunter reads and identifies from the text interesting aspects include in the text and then locates associated media to share with the other literacy circle group members. Your task is to identify some aspect from the reading and then search and find either images, sound files, or video related to that topic, time, or location. You can search to find media on a topic of interest that happened in that specific time period or location of the setting, if the book is not story based, then identify a fact from the reading and search for associated media concerning that fact. In the list below from the readings identify at least three statements that indicate the historical or locational (or factual) setting. Then go online and use media search tools and find associated images, sound files, or videos from websites, you can use the media search tools listed below or others you may know of. These media files should be ones that you find interesting concerning that fact, time, or location. Share your findings and their websites' URLs by either copy and pasting the images onto the whiteboard or uploading the image/sound/video files to the shared discussion space for the other members to download and "play" on their computers and then comment on. Make sure with your group members in the shared chat or discussion space you include the source URL and state how the media relates to the reading.
